

Project Review Report

4th September 2018

Client: Ms. Ellen Watson

PROGRESS AS AT 4TH SEPTEMBER 2018

After designing the initial prototype by the 4th September 2018, it was presented to the client Ms. Ellen Watson on the 3rd September 2018. The development of the 2nd Prototype will start on today. That is on the 4th September 2018.

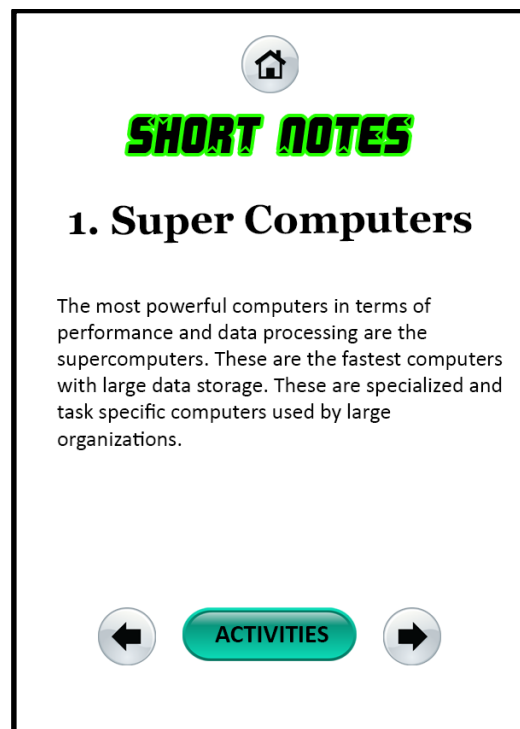

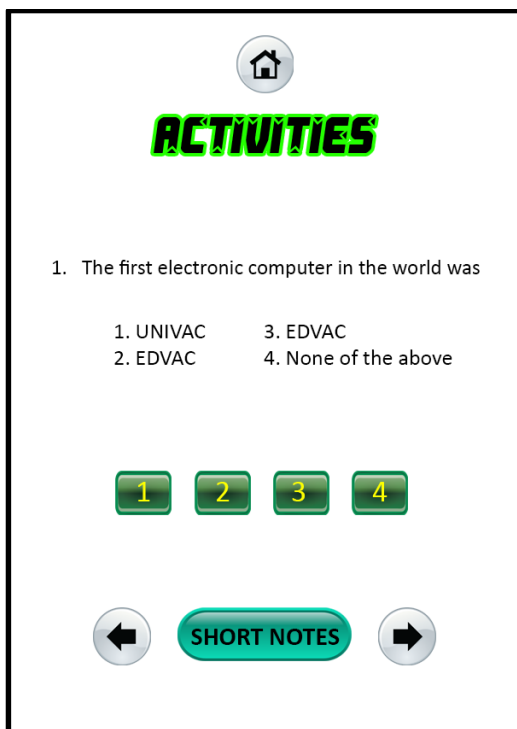

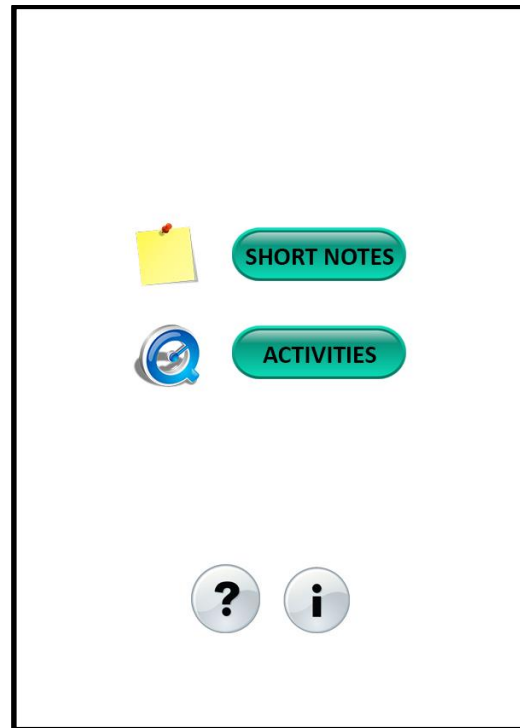

According to the maintained schedule and estimated timeframe, the final product should be finalized and handed over by the 30th October 2018.

There are certain important changes were to be made based on the feedback from meeting no. 4, prototyping, held on 2nd September 2018.

- Background color changing
- Changing the font similarity of the ebook title and the headings.
- Changing font style of the headings.
- Including multimedia Components but most relev

Thereby the second prototype will be made with due considerations to the listed point above and will be delivered at the upcoming next meeting.

EXISTING LAYOUT FORMAT AND STRUCTRE DESIGN

The above Screenshots shows both cover, home, questions and notes designs of the 1st prototype of the ebook. This prototype had few issues such as the background colour is too bright so it doesn't match the theme of the ebook fully. However, it doesn't have any technical errors. With due consideration to the points listed above, the second prototype will be produced by editing this prototype.
